Parenting: It's a Life

"To become self-disciplined, kids first need to be disciplined by parents. Loving your children includes setting limits and giving them responsibilities. Loving your child is giving them what they need, even if it is not always what they want." -Victoria Prooday

Last School Day
SCHOOL PICNIC
May 22nd

Student Nutrition will not be serving lunch on Wednesday, May 22nd.
Our students will have hot dogs, chips and water for lunch on May 22nd.
The cost for the picnic lunch is $3.
Money may be brought to the office or your child may bring it to their teacher.
We unfortunately only have enough to feed our students, but parents are welcome to come to lunch and be with their child.
Classes will be eating lunch at their normal times.
If you have had a background check we would love to have volunteers during our field day from 1:00-3:00.
